Date: 08/12/2024

Senate Bill 231 (Act 2024-340) as enacted could increase receipts to various state or local funds by an undetermined amount, beginning in Fiscal Year 2025, dependent on the amount of certain economic development incentives that employers would be required to repay for violating the provisions of this act prohibiting certain actions relating to employee representation by a labor organization.

Additionally, this act will increase the administrative obligations of the Department of Revenue, or other administering agency, by an undetermined amount to investigate potential violations of this act and to ensure that incentives are repaid.
