

HB140 INTRODUCED

1 HB140
2 GXPVC66-1
3 By Representative Ellis
4 RFD: Insurance
5 First Read: 07-Feb-24

SYNOPSIS:

Under existing law, various fraudulent activities by persons engaged in the transaction of the business of insurance constitute insurance fraud. The Department of Insurance is delegated the duty to enforce insurance fraud laws and to investigate violations. The statute of limitations on bringing a charge for a violation is two years after the fraud was detected.

This bill would increase the statute of limitations to seven years after the fraud was detected.

Also, under existing law, the Insurance Fraud Unit is established within the department to investigate alleged violations. Investigators of the Insurance Fraud Unit have the power vested in law enforcement officers including the power of arrest.

This bill would delete a limitation in existing law limiting the power of the investigators only to powers necessary for enforcement of this chapter.
