- 1.1 2022 Administrative Election Calendar
- 1.2 2022 Fair Campaign Practices Act Filing Calendar

The Secretary of State is the chief elections official in the state and has the authority to interpret state law. §§ 17-1-3 and 17-4-60(a) The judge of probate is the chief elections official of the county and serves as chair of the appointing board. § 17-1-3.

This handbook is an attempt to foster coordination among election officials and explain how election officials interact with each other. To further illustrate the need for this cooperation, an Administrative Calendar for the 2022 statewide elections and the FCPA Filing Calendar have been included in this chapter.

In these calendars, when a deadline falls on the weekend or a legal holiday, Section 1-1-4 provides for the deadline to extend to the next working day. This calendar is for administrative use and may not contain all deadlines prescribed by law. It should only be used as a guide. It is not intended to be a substitute for specific requirements found in Title 17 of the Code of Alabama.

Please note that the Alabama Legislature, through passage of Act 2021-284, has proposed a constitutional amendment that would set the implementation date of a bill that relates to the conduct of a general election. If ratified by the voters, the constitutional amendment would require that the implementation date of any such bill affecting the conduct of a general election shall be at least 6 months before a general election. This proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot in the 2022 general election. Act 2021-284.
